DEPOSITORY DIVISION – This division is responsible for the chartering, supervision, and regulation of federally-insured state-chartered depository institutions and certain affiliated/related entities. These institutions include banks, savings banks, savings and loan association, their respective holding companies, credit unions, and independent trust companies. Questions regarding this division can be directed to Chief Examiner Sid Seymour at (225)-925-4675, or ss Seymour@ofi.state.la.us.

SECURITIES DIVISION - This division registers securities offerings for sale to the public and licenses broker-dealers, agents, and investment advisors. Working in close cooperation with the National Association of Securities Dealers and the Securities and Exchange Commission, this section also investigates and originates enforcement actions dealing with unfair practices, complaints, and violations of law regarding a variety of securities activities. Questions regarding this division can be directed to Deputy Commissioner of Securities Rhonda Reeves at (225)-925-4512 or rreeves@ofi.state.la.us.

NON-DEPOSITORY DIVISION – This division is responsible for the licensing, supervision, and regulation of 10 programs. Prior to FY 90/91, the entities regulated included licensed lenders, sale of checks, notification filers, consumer loan brokers, and mortgage brokers and/or lenders. OFI was given responsibility in FY 92/93 for refund anticipation loan facilitators (repealed August 15, 1997), credit repair services, and self-help repossession agents. In FY 93/94, pawnbrokers, collection agencies (repealed August 15, 2003), and bond for deed escrow agencies were added. In FY 99/00, check cashers were added effective June 6, 2000. During FY 99/00, OFI began licensing residential mortgage lenders, brokers, and originators subject to the Residential Mortgage Lending Act. A total of 10,735 entities currently are licensed by the Nondepository Division. Questions regarding this division can be directed to Chief Examiner Ann Lemenager at (225)-925-1944 or ofiland@ofi.state.la.us.

The following are brief descriptions of the types of entities supervised by this division:

Licensed Lenders – Persons engaged in the business of making consumer loans and financing insurance premiums (finance companies).

Loan Brokers – Persons who, for compensation or the expectation of compensation, obtain or offer to obtain a consumer loan or mortgage loan subject to the Louisiana Consumer Credit Law from a third party for another person.

Residential Mortgage Lenders/Brokers – Persons who fund residential mortgage loans, or who, for compensation or the expectation of compensation, obtain or offer to obtain loans secured by mortgages on residential property located in Louisiana.

Notification Filers – Persons engaged in selling goods or services on credit and persons who take assignment of and undertake direct collection of payments from or enforcement of rights against debtors arising from these sales or loans.

Sale of Checks Licensees – Persons who engage in the selling of checks, drafts, money orders, or other instruments for the transmission or payment of money.

Credit Repair Services Organizations – Persons, who in return for money, improve or represent that they can improve a buyer's credit record, history, or rating.

Self-Help Repossession Agents – Persons who repossess automobiles and other movables.

Pawnbrokers – Persons who lend money on a deposit or pledge or who take items into possession as security for money advanced.

Check Cashers – A person, unless otherwise exempt, who accepts compensation for cashing checks, drafts, money orders, or other commercial paper.

Bond for Deed Escrow Agents – Persons designated by the parties to a bond for deed transaction to distribute payments made by the buyer to the holder of a mortgage in the real property subject to the transaction.

EXECUTIVE ADMINISTRATION DIVISION – This division is primarily responsible for the overall management of the agency and provides direction to the other three divisions. The following support functions are included in this division: legal, fiscal, budget, human resources, and information systems. Questions regarding this division can be directed to Commissioner John Ducrest at (225)-922-2627 or jducrest@ofi.state.la.us.

In addition, this division is responsible for licensing and regulating the Business and Industrial Development Corporations (BIDCOs) and Certified Louisiana Capital Companies (CAPCOs). The BIDCO program promotes the formation of business and industrial development corporations to help meet the financing assistance and management needs of business firms in the State. The CAPCO program provides tax credits to companies who invest in CAPCOs, which in turn make equity investments in qualifying Louisiana businesses. Questions regarding the BIDCO or CAPCO programs can be directed to Review Examiner Doug Buras at (225)-925-2595 or dburas@ofi.state.la.us.
